Demographic Information

In accordance with Washington State law, Western Washington University does not use race, sex, gender identity, color, ethnicity, or national origin in admission decisions.

Western Washington University is required by law to report aggregate demographic data to the U.S. Department of Education and other federal and state agencies. In addition, this information may assist in the awarding of privately funded scholarships.

Western is required to collect gender data for external reporting purposes. We recognize and respect that your self-identification may not be reflected in these options. You will have the ability to indicate your gender identity beyond the binary fields below after confirming your enrollment.

☐ Female  ☐ Male

Personal Pronouns:
If you would like to indicate your personal pronouns, you may do so here. Western provides students and employees with the opportunity to provide this information as one element of our commitment to fostering a respectful and inclusive university community. When students share pronouns, those pronouns will be shown next to student names on class and photo rosters used by faculty. Providing this information is voluntary; you are not required to do so. You will also be able to update this information after you enroll. Learn more on the FAQ page at https://lgbtq.wwu.edu/pronouns_gender_faq.
